STATICE FARM

Subscription to Statrice Farm local and seasonal flowers

Statrice Farm is a small ecological flower farm located in Rigaud and operated by Justine. She grows more than 50 varieties of different flowers, combining her passion for sustainable agriculture with her desire to create.

The flower subscription includes 10 weeks of flowers from July to September. The bouquets will be delivered at Groundhog Gardens' vegetable drop-off point on Thursdays (La Buvanderie, MTL). It is possible to add 2 more weeks of tulip bouquets, which will be delivered during the month of May (details to come).

You will receive a unique bouquet directly grown on the farm every week. The composition and color palette of the bouquets vary with each delivery, following the rhythm of the seasons.

Sign-up to receive local flowers for the whole season !

Cost : $25/week (taxes included)
